PRESIDENT MAURSTAD PRESIDING

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Good morning. Welcome to the George W. Norris Legislative Chamber for the second day of the Ninety-Sixth Legislative Session, Second Session. Our prayer this morning will be by Chaplain Reverend Harland Johnson of Lincoln.

REVEREND JOHNSON: (Prayer offered.)

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Reverend Johnson. We will call today's business to order. Members, would you please record your presence.

CLERK: I have a quorum present, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Are there any corrections for the Journal?

CLERK: I have no corrections this morning, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: At this time we will look to adopt the temporary rules. Senator Hudkins.

SENATOR HUDKINS: Mr. President, I would move that the rules, as are now in our possession, be adopted for today only, Thursday, January 6, 2000.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you. We have a motion to adopt the temporary rules. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. Rules, temporary rules, are adopted. Mr. Clerk, any messages, reports or announcements?

CLERK: Mr. President, I have no messages, reports or announcements at this time.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you. (Visitors introduced.) Members, if you will bring your bills forward, we'll stand at ease while we have bill introduction prior to adjournment.
